

Health and Employment Sources of information

The Institute of Public Health in Ireland (IPH) has produced a series of reviews which look at the health impacts of identified subject areas. Four reviews have been produced in the areas of employment, transport, the built environment and education. All reviews may be found at <http://www.publichealth.ie/ireland/hiresources>.

This resource supplements the 'Health Impacts of Employment' report. It highlights a number of organisations whose work considers issues relevant to the relationship between health and employment.

Commission on the Social Determinants of Health (CSDH), World Health Organization (WHO)

Employment was considered as one of the key areas of work which contributed to this WHO report. The Commission's final report and work of the Employment Conditions Knowledge Network (EMCONET) may be sourced at http://www.who.int/social_determinants/thecommission/finalreport/en/index.html

Department of Employment and Learning (DEL), Northern Ireland

DEL produces policy and statistics in relation to employment matters in Northern Ireland. <http://www.delni.gov.uk/>

Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment (DETE), Republic of Ireland

DETE produces policy and statistics in relation to employment matters in the Republic of Ireland. <http://www.entemp.ie/>

European Agency for Health and Safety at Work (EU-OSHA)

EU-OSHA is concerned with making Europe's workplaces safer, healthier and more productive. <http://osha.europa.eu/en>

European Commission – Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities

Working to create and enhance employment in Europe. Information is provided on various issues including better working conditions, social inclusion and gender equality.

<http://ec.europa.eu/social/home.jsp?langId=en>

European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions (Eurofound)

Eurofound, the European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions provides information, advice and expertise on living and working conditions, industrial relations and managing change in Europe.

<http://www.eurofound.europa.eu/index.htm>

Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC)

ESRC funds training in social and economic issues and has published a range of reports in relation to employment.

<http://www.esrcsocietytoday.ac.uk>

Economic and Social Research Institute (ESRI)

ESRI produces research which contributes to understanding economic and social change in Ireland and throughout the European Union. A range of reports have been produced in relation to employment.

<http://www.esri.ie/>

Health and Safety Authority (HSA), Republic of Ireland

HSA provides a wealth of information relating to employment and health.

<http://www.hsa.ie/eng/>

Health and Safety Executive Northern Ireland (HSENI)

HSENI provides a wealth of information relating to employment and health.

<http://www.hseni.gov.uk>

Working for Health

Health, Work and Well-being is a UK Government-led initiative which provides a wealth of information on how to protect and improve the health and well-being of working age people.

<http://www.workingforhealth.gov.uk>